Director's Message

Stacey Richardson

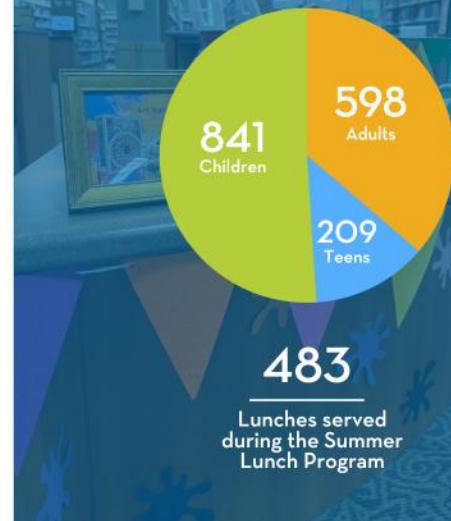

This past year was one of continued growth, ongoing connection, and meaningful progress—made possible by the collective efforts of this extraordinary community and our library staff.

Throughout 2025, the library continued to be a welcoming place where curiosity is encouraged, stories are shared, and people of all ages are welcome to learn, gather, and connect. These meaningful accomplishments reflect the dedication and creativity of our talented library staff, whose commitment to service brings our mission to life every day.

Our volunteers play an essential role in the library's success, and I extend heartfelt thanks to the Board of Trustees, Friends of Kent Free Library, and Kent Free Library Foundation. Their generosity, support, and service help ensure our continued excellence.

Most importantly, everything we do is for you—our patrons, neighbors, and community members. This is your library. Your continued support, participation, and belief in the power of libraries inspire us as we look toward the future with optimism.

Thank you for being part of our story. Together, we are building a library—and a community—that will continue to thrive for generations to come.
